

The Soup Scoop (Extra)

The mission of the Daily Bread Soup Kitchen is to feed the hungry of our community regardless of race, religion, or ethnicity. We welcome all volunteers to this service who share an unconditional positive regard for every human being. We provide a safe, respectful, and inviting environment in an atmosphere of hope and dignity.

“...Let’s Party again, Like we did last summer...”

Last year we invited you to join us for Daily Bread’s first ever benefit, and we promised you a ‘perfect June evening’ listening to Candy Foster and his band. Then we held our breath as the daytime temperature rose to almost a hundred and as evening storm clouds turned the sky black. But the temperature dropped, the rain skirted by, and we had our perfect night. So perfect in fact that we’re doing it all over again! Please party with us!

Daily Bread Benefit

Candy Foster and Shades of Blue
at Alto Vineyards,
June 10, from 6-10

Due to a scheduling conflict Candy Foster will be performing on JUNE 10TH (not June 3rd as reported in the last newsletter!). Candy is well-known as one of the hardest working blues singers in the area. His strong vocals and high-energy style always draw interactive enthusiasm from audiences. A stellar cast rounds out his backing band, Shades of Blue. Join Candy and the volunteers from Daily Bread Soup Kitchen for a wonderful evening of music and dancing under the stars at Alto Vineyards. Daily Bread-style dinner served from 6-7, entertainment begins at 7.
